Preamble

ASX Limited (ASXL) is the holder of an Australian financial market licence and the operator of Australia's main cash market for equity securities.

ASX Clear Pty Limited (ASX Clear) is the central counterparty and clearing facility for ASXL's market and provides all clearing and counterparty risk management services.

ASX Settlement Pty Limited (ASX Settlement) is the securities settlement facility for ASXL's market and provides all settlement and asset registration services.

ASX Clear and ASX Settlement each hold an Australian CS facility licence under the Corporations Act. ASX Clear and ASX Settlement are regulated by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and the Reserve Bank of Australia.

Each of ASX Clear and ASX Settlement has established arrangements with ASX Compliance Pty Limited (ASX Compliance) for supervising their respective clearing and settlement facilities.

ASXL is the ultimate holding company of ASX Clear, ASX Settlement and ASX Compliance.

The functions of the Boards of ASXL, ASX Clear, ASX Settlement and ASX Compliance are set out in ASXL's Board Charter, which is available at: http://www.asxgroup.com.au/media/PDFs/board_charter_august2010.pdf

Under the Operating Rules of ASX Clear and ASX Settlement an Australian market licence holder can apply to become an Approved Market Operator (AMO). ASXL is an AMO.

ASX Clear and ASX Settlement provide clearing and settlement arrangements which include services to AMOs and to parties to transactions in relation to CHESS-eligible ASX-quoted financial products. There are two categories of service relating to these clearing and settlement arrangements:

1. a service to be provided by a CS facility licence holder to AMOs, being the acceptance of transactions effected through that AMO's trade facility for clearing and settlement in the CS facility (Trade Acceptance Service); and
2. a clearing and settlement service provided to the participants of ASX Clear and ASX Settlement, being post-trade processing of transactions in CHESS-eligible ASX-quoted financial products effected in accordance with the Operating Rules of an AMO.

ASX Clear and ASX Settlement propose to provide a Trade Acceptance Service to AMOs under the Legal terms for the provision of a trade acceptance service to Australian financial market licensees in respect of CHESS-eligible ASX-quoted financial products (Legal Terms of Service). The Legal Terms of Service provide that if ASX Clear or ASX Settlement acquire actual knowledge of competitively sensitive information in the course of providing the Trade Acceptance Service, they will implement as an operational standard promulgated under the Legal Terms of Service, appropriate safeguards (to be determined in their absolute discretion) to protect that information from disclosure to ASXL.

This information handling standard is promulgated by ASX Clear and ASX Settlement under the Legal Terms of Service as an operational standard for the protection of confidential information (including competitively sensitive information) of AMOs which the ASX Group may acquire in connection with the provision of a Trade Acceptance Service.

This Preamble is provided for the assistance of the reader and does not form part of the information handling standard.

Information Handling Standard

1. Interpretation

Capitalised terms used in this information handling standard have the meanings given to them in clause 8 (Glossary).

2. Purpose, scope and application

The ASX Group recognises that AMOs may disclose AMO Confidential Information to the ASX Group:

- for the purpose of determining whether to acquire a Trade Acceptance Service from ASX Clear and ASX Settlement;
- in the course of applying for approval as an AMO under the Operating Rules of ASX Clear and ASX Settlement;
- in the course of agreeing to be bound by the Legal Terms of Service;
- in the course of acquiring a Trade Acceptance Service; or
- in seeking to reach an agreement with ASX Clear and ASX Settlement to expand or enhance a Trade Acceptance Service.

The ASX Group does not require an AMO to disclose AMO Confidential Information to the ASX Group for any of the purposes or in any of the instances listed above.

The purpose of this information handling standard is to establish a transparent framework for handling confidential information disclosed to the ASX Group by AMOs in connection with the provision of a Trade Acceptance Service.

The ASX Group recognises that certain AMO Confidential Information may also be AMO Conflict Sensitive Information.

In relation to AMO Conflict Sensitive Information, this information handling standard seeks to balance:

- the need to ensure that the potential for conflicts on the part of ASX Group Directors or ASX Group Employees, resulting from the receipt of AMO Conflict Sensitive Information, is appropriately managed; and
- the need to ensure that ASX Clear and ASX Settlement continue to comply with their respective statutory obligations as CS facility licensees.

The statutory obligations referred to above include but are not limited to:

- the governance requirements applicable to ASX Clear under the Financial Stability Standard for Central Counterparties (extracted in Schedule 1).¹ In particular, this information handling standard seeks to ensure that restrictions on the flow of information do not adversely affect:

¹ While the Financial Stability Standard for Securities Settlement Facilities contains no equivalent governance provisions, the more detailed requirements of the Financial Stability Standard for Central Counterparties are treated for the purposes of this protocol as setting the applicable standard of governance for both ASX Clear and ASX Settlement.

- the ability of the Boards of ASX Clear and ASX Settlement to continue to provide oversight of the operations of the clearing and settlement facilities; or
- the risk-control functions of ASX Clear and ASX Settlement's clearing and settlement facilities; and
- the obligation of a CS facility licensee under section 821A(c) of the Act to have adequate arrangements for supervising its clearing and settlement facility.

This information handling standard applies to the provision by AMOs of AMO Confidential Information (including AMO Conflict Sensitive Information) to the ASX Group in connection with the provision of a Trade Acceptance Service and the protection and use of that information by the ASX Group.

3. Commencement

This information handling standard takes effect on the date specified by ASX Clear and ASX Settlement.

4. Protection of AMO Confidential Information

The ASX Group will use the same degree of care (but no less than a reasonable degree of care) to prevent AMO Confidential Information being disclosed to third parties as the ASX Group uses to protect its own confidential information of a similar nature.

However, the ASX Group may disclose AMO Confidential Information:

- if required by law or by any order or notice of a court, tribunal, authority or regulatory body including in relation to the supervision of a financial market or clearing and settlement facility (as defined under the Act); or
- with the written approval of the AMO.

5. AMO Trading Information

The ASX Group will not store, process, use or disclose AMO Trading Information for any purpose other than to comply with laws and regulations binding on ASX Clear, ASX Settlement or any other member of the ASX Group.

6. Submission and screening of AMO Conflict Sensitive Information

An AMO which seeks to share AMO Conflict Sensitive Information with any member of the ASX Group in connection with the provision of a Trade Acceptance Service should provide the information in writing to the General Manager, Regulatory Assurance and not to any ASX Group Director or any ASX Group Employee or by any other means. This applies irrespective of:

- whether the document containing the AMO Conflict Sensitive Information also contains other information;
- whether an ASX Group Employee (other than the General Manager, Regulatory Assurance) has asked for the information, or the AMO considers that the ASX Group requires the information, in connection with the provision of a Trade Acceptance Service;
- the specific purpose for which the AMO seeks to share the information with the ASX Group.

Any AMO Conflict Sensitive Information which an AMO provides to the General Manager, Regulatory Assurance should be clearly marked as “AMO Conflict Sensitive Information” and accompanied by a statement of:

- the purpose for which the information is being provided to the ASX Group; and
- the ASX Group Employees to whom the AMO wishes the information to be provided.

The ASX Group takes no responsibility for the unauthorised use or distribution of AMO Conflict Sensitive Information which is submitted to the ASX Group otherwise than in accordance with this information handling standard.

The General Manager, Regulatory Assurance will screen all information submitted to him or her in accordance with this clause 6 to confirm that the information is AMO Conflict Sensitive Information. If the General Manager, Regulatory Assurance determines that the information is not AMO Conflict Sensitive Information, he or she will advise the AMO and take no further action in relation to the information other than to return the information to the AMO if the AMO so directs. If the General Manager, Regulatory Assurance determines that the information is AMO Conflict Sensitive Information, he or she will distribute it in accordance with clause 7 (Distribution and use of AMO Conflict Sensitive Information).

7. Distribution and use of AMO Conflict Sensitive Information

If the General Manager, Regulatory Assurance determines that information submitted to him or her in accordance with clause 6 (Submission and screening of AMO Conflict Sensitive Information) is AMO Conflict Sensitive Information, he or she will distribute it as follows:

ASX Group Employees

AMO Conflict Sensitive Information will be distributed only to those ASX Group Employees:

- to whom the AMO has requested the General Manager, Regulatory Assurance to provide the information;

- who require the information in the ordinary course of performing their role in connection with the discharge of regulatory obligations of the ASX Group (including, without limitation, ASX Group Employees who need access to AMO Conflict Sensitive Information for the purpose of preparing reports required to be given to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission or the Reserve Bank of Australia).
