| Basis For Decision | Underlying PolicyProhibition against entity issuing securities after it is notified of takeover bid - maintains status quo for benefit of bidder during the course of the bid - ensures entity does not issue securities to impede takeover bid - supports takeover regime in Corporations Act. Present ApplicationListed entities prohibited from issuing or agreeing to issue securities for 3 months after takeover announced, unless the issue of securities had been announced before the takeover or shareholder approval obtained - target companies not prohibited by that listing rule from issuing or agreeing to issue securities once 3 months has elapsed after announcement of takeover - target company dual listed company, listed on LSE and ASX - target company has had various employee and executive plans in operation for a number of years - grants under the plans have in previous years taken place in March - bid for target company announced in February - bid subject to a number of preconditions - ASIC relief granted to bidder to permit the bidder's statement to be despatched later than 2 months after the announcement of the intention to make the bid - target company proposes to make regular grants under executive and employee plans - number of securities to be issued immaterial in context of bid (&lt;0.1% issued capital) - issue will not constitute frustrating conduct in relation to bid - reasonable in the circumstances for the regular grant under employee and executive plans to proceed as usual without the requirement for shareholder approval - waiver granted on condition that the Company release information to the market as soon as waiver is granted. |

| Basis For Decision | Underlying PolicyEntity must not issue options if it would have more options on issue than underlying securities - exception where offer of one ordinary security and one option for each ordinary security - goes to acceptable capital structure of entity - excessive amount of options on issue may confuse investors and create uncertainty in the market place. Present ApplicationProposed number of options (assuming the pro rata entitlements issue is fully subscribed) will exceed the number of underlying securities by up to approximately 3.7% - options that will shortly be issued to directors, consultant and employees will be unquoted and will expire 5 years from the date of issue - overhang is insignificant - comfort that entity's capital structure will not cause confusion - waiver granted on de minimis basis. |
